

Privacy Policy Specific to Northampton Road Runners

1. What data we will collect?

In order for you to become a member of Northampton Road Runners we will need to collect certain personal information about you. Your details will be passed to England Athletics in order for them to be able to register you, if applicable, and in order for us to email you.

2. Uses of your data

We collect and process your data on the basis of legitimate NRR interests which are as follows:-

2.1 Registering you with England Athletics.

2.2 Club weekly emails and monthly newsletters

2.3 Sharing your data with club run leaders for entering events and with leagues and other competition organisers for entry into events.

2.4 Analysing and reporting upon club membership trends.

Other than registering your personal data with England Athletics, we will not sell, distribute or lease your personal data to third parties.

3. Northampton Road Runners use of Social Media

NRR uses Facebook. We have a twitter account which we no longer use. There are unofficial NRR accounts on other platforms.

Facebook groups are set up in the name of NRR and are only accessible by audited individuals. These pages are regulated by the NRR committee to ensure that the contents are both appropriate and that the pages are in compliance with GDPR. Please see the Facebook page for current rules of usage.

4. How long we will keep your data?

We will retain your data for such time as you are an registered with us and will then delete your information within two years of your membership lapsing. It is your responsibility to request deletion of your email address from the mailing list.

5. Your rights

You have the following rights under data protection legislation:-

to access a copy of the data which we hold in relation to you to have inaccurate personal data rectified

6. Privacy policy

All of the personal data we collect from you will be collected, stored and processed in accordance with the principles detailed below:-

The England Athletics online portal forms the main data repository for athletics information for the club. Access to these data is limited to the club Secretary, treasurer and Membership Secretary only.

Membership application forms will be deleted once a person has become a member of NRR.

Your email address will not be disclosed to other members without your permission.

Event registration is usually completed via a 3rd party, such as bookitzone.com. Please view their corresponding privacy statements for more information.

7. Complaints

If you have any concerns or complaints in relation to how NRR collects and/or processes your personal data, you should contact the NRR Club Secretary, Mark Manning, by email (secretary@northamptonroadrunners.co.uk) in the first instance. If you are dissatisfied with how your concern/complaint is dealt with by NRR, you have the right to report your concern/complaint to the Information Commissioners Office (www.ico.org.uk)

8. Privacy Policy Specific to use of our Website

COLLECTION OF DATA

We may collect personal contact information from you.

We do not carry out market research nor disclose this data to any third parties.

COOKIES ON OUR WEBSITE

NRR uses Google Analytics to analyse the use of this website. Google Analytics generates statistical and other information about website use by means of cookies, which are stored on users' computers. The information generated relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of the website. Google will store and use this information. Google's privacy policy is available at: <http://www.google.com/privacypolicy.html>.]

LOGGING

When using this web site our web server automatically logs certain information such as the name of your ISP, the IP address of the computer you are using, type of browser and operating system, the date and time you access this site and any internet address from which you linked directly to this site. We use this information to analyse user behaviour and track referrals.

LINKS TO EXTERNAL SITES

We cannot be held responsible for the content on external sites.